JURY CHARGE:

Members of the jury, my apologies for not being able to get started with this case sooner. In view of the lateness of the hour, I think we ought to send you to lunch. When you return from lunch, you'll be in a better mood to listen to the evidence. We will then proceed with the case. Please do not discuss the case among yourselves. Keep an open mind until you've heard all of the evidence in the case. Return here promptly at 2:00 o'clock.

Q & A:

Plaintiff = Ms. Paul

Defense = Mr. Devlin

Word List:

Santa Claus

Batman

MS. PAUL: I would like to call Chris Blackburn, B-I-a-c-k-b-u-r-n, to the stand, your Honor. He would like his mother in the courtroom.

THE COURT: I will allow her to remain.

Mr. Devlin, is there anything you would like to take up with the court before we begin?

MR. DEVLIN: I don't think so, your honor.

THE COURT: The witness may need the booster seat.

You may proceed, Counsel.

MS. PAUL: Thank you, your Honor.

BY MS. PAUL:

Q What is your name?

A Chris.

Q Do you know how to spell Chris?

A C-h-r-i-s.

Q Do you know what your last name is?

A No.

Q Is it Blackburn? Does that sound familiar?

A Yes.

THE COURT: Chris, you need to sit back from the microphone a little bit.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

THE COURT: Continue, Counsel.

BY MS. PAUL:

Q Chris, do you go to school?

A No.

Q How old are you Chris?

A Five.

Q All right. Chris, do you see this writing pen that I have in my hand?

A Uh-huh.

THE COURT: You have to answer out loud. Is that a yes or a no? Do you see the pen in her hand?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

BY MS. PAUL:

Q If I told you this pen is yellow, would that be the truth or a lie?

A A lie.

Q Is it good to tell lies?

A No.

Q Is it good to tell the truth?

A Yes.

Q If you told a lie at home, would you be in trouble with anyone?

A Yes.

Q Who?

A My mom.

Q What would your mom do?

A Hit my butt.

Q Okay. If you were to tell a lie in here, do you think you'd get in trouble?

A Yes.

Q With who?

A Her.

MS. PAUL: Let the record reflect that he pointed to the judge.

THE COURT: The record will so reflect.

BY MS. PAUL:

Q Your mommy is sitting in court, isn't she?

A Yes.

Q Do you think she would – you'd be in trouble with your mom if you lied in court?

A Yes.

Q Think you might get a spanking?

A Yes.

MS. PAUL: I have nothing further, you Honor.

THE COURT: Counsel, do you have any questions?

MR. DEVLIN: Yes, I do. I'll wait until Chris finishes his tune on the microphone.

BY MR. DEVLIN:

Q Chris, do you know who Santa Claus is?

A Yes.

Q What is Santa Claus?

THE COURT: The record should reflect the witness shrugged his shoulders. There was no verbal response.

MS. PAUL: I think it's an appropriate response for the question.

BY MR. DEVLIN:

Q Chris, do you know what Christmas is?

A No.

Q Do you know if you get presents at some time during the year?

A Huh-uh.

Q Do you ever get presents?

A Yes

Q Why?

MS. PAUL: May the record reflect that he shrugged his shoulders again?

THE COURT: It may.

BY MR. DEVLIN:

Q Did you ever get presents for your birthday?

THEORY FINAL ANSWER KEY

A Yes.

Q When is your birthday?

A I don't know.

Q What did you get for your birthday last year?

A Batman stuff and a gun and a backpack.

THE COURT: Excuse me, Counsel. I think this might be a good time to take our morning break. Our court reporter looks pooped.
